As our glorious youth draws to an end.
We're left with only memories of friends.

Today we share our hopes and fears
Tomorrow we remember with our tears.

Our memories we'll always recall.
The somber peace of Mitchell's halls.

Jeri Bengé

Don, are you sure that is where you are supposed to be?

Anybody want a bite?

Studying hard, Stu Baby?

How long is this going to take?

Who ya gonna call . . . ?

Are you sure Statesville is in Iredell County?

1985 DEDICATION

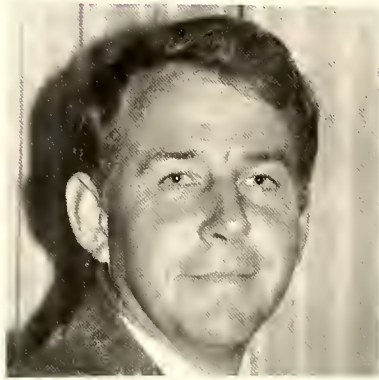

NORMA LINK

Norma Link or "Mama Link" as she is known on Mitchell Community College campus, has devoted many hours of her time to the students and staff of the college. She has always been glad to help with all school activities and faculty gatherings. Through the years "MaMa" has become a welcomed and cherished sight in the student union. She greets each of us with a cheerful smile and her own type of funny humor. We will always cherish her unique personality and her love.

The meaningful experiences we have are a result of circumstances and people. At appropriate times, we have opportunities to learn from others. By design, Mitchell Community College continues to provide the people and the circumstances for beneficial experiences. From the community view, you are fortunate to have the opportunity to benefit from the leadership of the Board of Trustees, quality instruction from the faculty, and appropriate support services from the staff. From the college view, all of us are fortunate to have the opportunity to be a part of your learning experience and the provide ever expanding opportunities for you. Together, the possibilities seem unlimited.

"Outside the Circle"

Mitchell Community College owns nine houses that are not located around "the circle." These buildings house classrooms, offices and also serve as storage areas. The following are some of those.

The Wallace House is located on Walnut Street, behind the Student Union. Most of our Art classes are held here. The basement houses a kiln. The Main floor has a classroom, two offices, several workrooms and the Louise Gilbert Art Gallery. The second floor has three workrooms and is now serving as a studio for photography classes.

Our music classes are held in the Current House. It is located on West End Ave. There are offices, practice rooms, classrooms and a listening center.

Executive Staff Notes

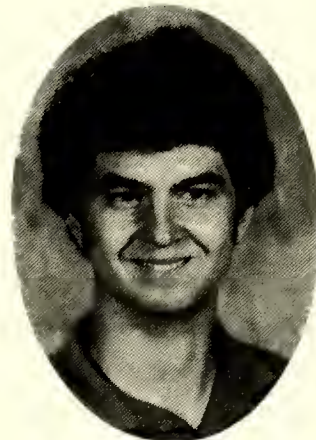

Beth Sherrill
1985 Circle Advisor

This year has been one filled with frustration, excitement, and success for the yearbook staff. The year began with six new members joining our staff—without any previous knowledge of the process involved in making a yearbook. As the year progressed, new problems were encountered sometimes even before old ones were resolved. With the tension of approaching deadlines coupled with other responsibilities, the staff learned not only how to prepare a yearbook but also how to work with others more effectively and efficiently. As the final deadline approached, the staff had been transformed from a group of individuals to a team. Each staff member should feel proud for his or her contribution to the '85 Circle. Special thanks go to Don Rutherford, who accepted the responsibilities of editor, and Jeri Benge, who accepted the same responsibilities shortly after production began. They and all the staff members have made this yearbook a success.

Co-

Jeri Benge

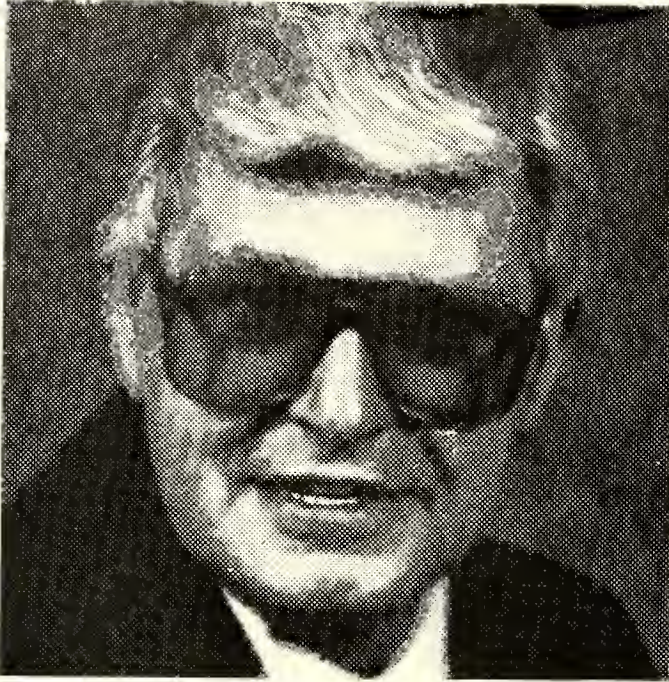

Don Rutherford

As a 1984-85 co-editor, I wish to thank Beth Sherrill, our advisor and the entire staff for making my job worthwhile. It was tough, but we always met our deadlines. Don, thanks for your moral support. I hope this book will be looked upon in years to come, bringing the smiles of remembrance to the students, faculty, staff and administration it honors. This is your book; cherish it as a fleeting moment of your youth that will never fade.

Each page of this book is a record of your life as students of Mitchell Community College. I would like to thank the members of the yearbook staff for their many hours of hard work. I would like to thank Beth Sherrill for her time and understanding; also Jeri Benge, for her hard work and dedication. I hope this yearbook means as much to you as it does to me.
